

World Happenings In Pictures

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

"I'VE BEEN HORROR"—Nervous from an encounter with an armed robber minutes earlier in Hotel Rath Conery of a Bank of Nova Scotia branch in Toronto, the handoff made off with $4,200. Here Detective Roy Riegler examines her cage.

CAREY STENGEL, manager of the New York Yankees, meets Japanese Crown Prince Akihito and looks at the prince's dog, Princess Takako. The royal visitor, who watched the Yankees in a Tokyo exhibition, were presented with a Yankee baseball cap.

THIS IS TOUCH ECKLE!—Looks more like "white" tackle. North's Joan Smallman tries to bring down Chris Stirling, who's making 20 yards in a punt return for South during the annual Coast Club of University of Southern California at Los Angeles. North was 12-0 before the ladies retired to the sidelines until next season. Here Joan's tackled on to in a towel, tied to undergo her tackle in gown.

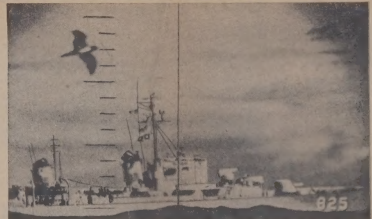

THE SHIP'S GEM (IN)—Samer Kofey, owner of Christmas's most feared chronic trouble location to smile through his groggy pain. He has reason—the picture shows his wife and newborn daughter, Rhoda, having one playing a moment's engagement in Atlanta, Ga., when the stark arrived at Hingham's winter quarters in Bethesda, Pa., where Mrs. Kelly and Sam are at the hospital.

THREE-DIMENSIONAL WARFARE—A United States army vehicle, in an article entitled "Three-Dimensional Warfare" showcases outcome of being tested. They would be capable of short flights over rivers, wooded areas and other natural or man-made barriers, thus streamlining around obstacles into new ranks of tactical maneuvers.

CHURCHILL RETURNS TO LONDON—Sir Winston Churchill arrives at London Airport from his vacation on the French Riviera. The former prime minister, looking hale and hearty, had been the guest of Lord Beaverbrook at Cap d'Ant. During his vacation Sir Winston inspected a number of villas and estates with a view to buying a home of his own.

JUST A LITTLE HIGH SKIFFER—Ships are often said to be sailing ships for a submarine, but it's seldom that an underwater craft rights on a live boat. Here, at upper left, was only one caught in thousands of pictures of the submarine's first voyage. "Intrepid" shows in an exact distance. Picture was taken from control room of the Navy's submarine fleet.

NEW RECORD—Campbell wears a broad grin and gives Oa Thumpe up right on his thumbs back the cockpit canopy after setting a new record of 216.2 m.p.h. He gives a little indication of the turbo testing he took on the return run when Blomstedt was "battered by winds."

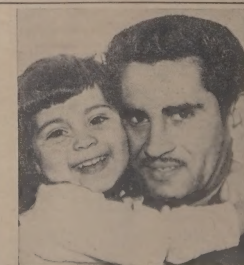

INTRICATELY CARVED silver floral settings for the background of polished chrome sculpture is this matched ensemble of necklace, bracelet and earrings which can be worn around the clock.

MISS WHEAT KING OF 1955—Glen Poley of Winnipeg, holds the title of wheat, which won the world championship of the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto. It was grown by Robert Cuthbert of Grand Prairie, Alta.

OF COURSE NOT—They're not moving the Eiffel Tower. Photographer's ingenuity, however, even into high gear when he spotted this amazing connection between tower and tower as he filmed a construction project some distance from the world-famous Paris landmark.

FLUCKY FATHER, LUCKY DAUGHTER—Christina Polito, three, huge daddy, Glen Poley, after he rescued her from Miss Blomstedt's car. Christina was sitting in parked car when Poley was taking. The brakes stopped and the car plunged into the water. Blomstedt later witnesses how she came to the surface with Christina in his arms.

Lapland coffee the invariable offering in Finland homes

VIC LYONS

The visitor to Finland who is not a coffee-drinker will find himself at a disadvantage socially. From metropolitan Helsinki to the wide of northern Lapland coffee is the medium for offering upon entering a home, be it rich or poor.

Although I had begun drinking coffee the year before, I never actually became fond of it until reaching Finland. This was no doubt because of the superior quality of Finnish coffee is made plus the fresh cream that is invariably served with it.

— There are two rules to be followed in drinking coffee in Finland. Failure to observe them on the part of a newcomer will of course be understood, but the sooner the visitor learns about them the better.

merican favorite, the sugared doughnut, can be found. It is called donuts (doughnuts-ee). Often sandwiches are served two times either with or without the pastries. Actually they are sandwiches in the strict sense of the word, for only once piece of bread is used, white or brown, hard or soft, thick or thin. Every Finn seeks to maintain his individuality by creating several varieties. Usually there is a selection of sweet and non-sweet spreads to spread on top—jam, honey, salami, hard-boiled eggs, cucumbers, cheese, etc.

Funny and

Artist: "In a few years people will look at this house and say 'Cobalt, the painter, used to live here!'"

Landlady: "If you don't pay your rent by tonight, they'll be able to say it tomorrow."

"It is high time," said the reformer, "that we had a moral awakening. Let us rise in our might. Let us gird our loins. Let us take off our coats. Let us bare our arms."

Wife: "George, you don't know what I go through when you snore at night."

George: "Don't I? I've been missing a good deal of my snoring."

Stranger—You're a hen-pecked little shrimp.
LeRoy—You wouldn't dare say that if my wife were here.

It was a very hot day and a aviator was taking an elderly lady up for her first ride. After a while she leaned forward and touched him on the shoulder, pointed to the propeller and shouted, "All right, young man, you can turn it off now I'm much cooler."

STRANGE BELIEF

The ancient Romans believed that a good treatment for a person who suffered from nervous and mental disorders was to take a sea voyage and become seasick.

On The Side : • By •
E. V. Durlin

A "scientific system"
An Australian physician has developed a winning horse-race system that calls for taking electrocardiograph of the hearts of horses. The condition the horse's heart is in on the day of the race is a major factor in determining his winning chances. The hearts of major favorites are stronger on some days than others. The Thoroughbreds who always run a good race, that is maintain their form, have strong steady hearts.

Talked into it every time
Do you know why women wear tight shoes? So tight that they have to take them off in the theatre and other places where they pause for a rest. Also, do you know why women wear silly hats a size four or five? Because of their hair-do? It is because their sense resistance broke. It is especially so when the sales talk is a feminine mouthful of the opposite sex. That is when the number of feminine subscribers claims. They say the shoe salesman convince them they should wear shoes that make the feet look smaller. Millinery saleswomen overpower the customers with flattery.

From frocks to socks
So Madame Schiaparelli, France's famous dress designer, is designing socks for men. That should be really something. Imagine reading in the credit part of a theatre program: "Socks by Schiaparelli." I am afraid, however, I will be unable to personally feature any Schiaparelli socks. The day I graduated from high school, I promised my uncle Al never to carry a briefcase, play a three-h-

Famale for freckled faces
Not long ago, experts on horses and women strongly recommended girls with freckles as companions on moonlight strolls, sweet hearts and wives. It was said that in addition to unusual intelligence and a sense of humor and a sympathetic nature the average freckled beauty has an outstanding capacity for affection. Anyway, you mention is called to the fact that beautiful women in great numbers are losing the chance of becoming the wife of one of the world's richest men, Prince Aly Khan. And who is now high in the running? Why, none other than Simone Rodin, a smart-looking girl with freckles!

∴ APPETIZING RECIPES ∴

Flam Pudding is the traditional Christmas dessert, but for other Yuletide company meals, you'll want "happy endings" that are lighter. In this Cranberry Candle dessert, a butter-rich mixture sandwiches cranberry sauce and coconut and is topped with ice-cream "candles" with almond "flames."

CRANBERRY CANDLE
DESSERT

2½ cups rolled oats
2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
¾ cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon soda
¾ teaspoon salt
1 cup soft butter
1 egg, slightly beaten

1. Greased 8 x 8 inch cake pan.
2. Cover with cranberry sauce.
3. Sprinkle sauce evenly with orange rind and coconut. Top with remaining mixture.
4. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.
5. Serve warm or cold. Cut in squares and top with half an ice cream roll and almond. Makes 8 servings.

Canadian statistics report

(A Weekly Review)

Foreign Trade: Canada's domestic exports in September rose 16 percent in value over a year earlier to reach the highest figure recorded for this month. In the nine months this year there was a gain of 11.7 percent. Increased sales of minerals, metals and their products, chemicals and forest products were mainly ew portrait of Queen Elizabeth

A British artist who has exhibi-

his works five or six times in Canada is painting a new portrait of Queen Elizabeth.

But Edward Seago's portrait will be different. He is painting Queen mounted on her chest-horse, Winston, and in full regalia for Trooping the Color ceremony.

1000 to committee

Manitoba cabinet has authorized the payment of a grant of $10,000 to the Committee on Alcoholism for Manitoba. It is headed by Hon. Robert Bend, Minister of Health and Public Welfare.

"Gardener's Gold" from Earthworms

A little-known earthworm, recently imported from Tennessee, promises to be the answer to many of the

Helpful Hints

Paint spots should be scraped off a fabric and then it should be washed in hot warm suds. If the paint stain has dried, soften it with oil or lard, then sponge with

Delicious for Sunday Brunch Split English muffins, toast and butter. Spread each buttered side with deviled ham, top each with

When sitting Enoleum around the legs of radiators and similar

Putting summer clothes away carefully keeps them in better condition and lengthens their life.

Press a bar of soap into the DRIVE WITH CARE!

